

“The King and I”

Part 4

Principles of the Kingdom

There are two (2) things important to the King when it comes to the Kingdom:

1. Growing the Kingdom
2. Growing us at the same time

A healthy – beneficial relationship with the King is based on these three (3) truths we must believe:

- The King (God) has all power and authority
- The King (God) is all wise
- The King (God) is perfect in love

Because the King loves you – He always wills what is best for you

Because He is all wise – He knows what is best for you

Because he has all authority – He has the power to make it work

The Royal Farmer

Luke 8:4-15

Notes:

Small Group Questions:

1. Discuss with the group the last time you grew a vegetable garden? What vegetables did you grow? What steps did you take to grow this garden? Were you successful? How did you measure your success?
2. Does your King have ALL power and authority over your life? What (if any) area are you working to eventually turn over to your King? What (if any) area are you holding back “for dear life” from the King?
3. Do you remember or have you heard reference of a popular radio and television show of the 50’s and 60’s called, “Father Knows Best,” starring Robert Young and Jane Wyatt? Do you believe your Father knows best? How has your Father proven He knows what is best for you?
4. Why does the Father make everything work out for the best? What is the Father’s will for you?

We have Community Groups welcoming both married couples and singles throughout the Denver Metro Area. You can find a listing of these groups online at www.fbc.org.
