

Divine Appointments

“Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. He wanted to see who Jesus was, but because he was short he could not see over the crowd. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way. When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, ‘Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today.’ So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly. All the people saw this and began to mutter, ‘He has gone to be the guest of a sinner.’ But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, ‘Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount.’ Jesus said to him, ‘Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost.’”

Luke 19:1-10 (NIV)

Why Divine Appointments?

Divine appointments...

1. May position you, guide you, correct you, and lead you to Christ.
2. May stop or change the course of life.
3. Often require that we live by faith, not answers.
4. Teach us to recognize the activity of God in our lives.

5. May come as choices we make.

6. May come as opportunities disguised as normal events.

7. Often require action and obedience.

8. Often lead to changed behavior and changed lives.

- In what areas are you trying to make things happen in your life?
- What can you see and what should you take away from your divine appointments?

“Many are the plans in a person’s heart, but it is the Lord’s purpose that prevails.”
Proverbs 19:21 (NIV)
